IDENTIFYING REMAINS

Not Less Than Fifteen Dead as a Result of the Olean Disaster.

MORE THAN TWO SCORE INJURED.

Three Disastrous Explosions Caused by the Fire That Followed the Wreck of an Oil Train on the Erie Road.

Olean, N. Y., March 10. — Fifteen lives were lost and fully twice that number of people were burned or bruised by the explosion of oil following the wreck of an oil train on the Erie railroad north of this city. Owing to the fact that some of the bodies were incinerated in the fierce flames, or blown into the creek by the fierce explosion, the exact number of dead will probably not be known for several days.

The scenes following the explosion will never be forgotten by those who saw them. An Erie freight train, westbound, broke in two on the hill two miles north of the city. At first the forward part of the train, released of all the weight of the cars behind, sprang forward with increased speed. Brakes were applied and the front portion of the train was brought almost to a standstill at the iron bridge across Olean creek. The rear cars, gathering momentum as they came down the hill, crashed into the forward part of the train. Most of the cars in the train were tank cars filled with refined oil or gasoline. The impact was terrific. One of the tank cars caught fire soon after the collision. In a few minutes another car of gasoline caught fire, and burst in flames with a terrific report. Portions of the iron domes of the cars were hurled a distance of several hundred feet. The flames shot high up in the air, presenting a brilliant spectacle. In this early accident, so far as can be learned, no one was injured. A large crowd quickly gathered. Hundreds of people from Olean, North Olean and the surrounding country side gathered to watch the brilliant play of flames.

For two hours the people stood massed together, and as the heat became less intense the crowd began to edge a little closer to the wreckage. Suddenly there was a terrific explosion. Great masses of white flames shot hundreds of feet into the air and literally rolled down the banked sides of the track into the gully where the spectators were standing. Men and boys fell before the wave of white light to rise no more. Huge pieces of iron were hurled through the air, mowing down the human beings by the scores. Men and boys with their clothing a mass of flames ran shrieking down the track, some of them falling to the ground unconscious, while others groveled in the ditch or jumped into the creek in an endeavor to put out the fire that was consuming them. As soon as the telephone could be reached all the doctors in city were summoned and the ambulances were called out. Express wagons and other vehicles were pressed into service.

The Dead.—John Stemmlinger, 17; Norman Brown, 18; John Tobin, 16; John McCreedy, 15; John McMahan, 19; Walter Swift, 19; Michael Driscoll, 22; Walter Jackson, 13; Walter Roth, 16; Richard Connell, 19; Herman Bollman, 19; Rofelo Quarinto, Carmen Stitiano, Martin Gallagher, all of Olean; Henry Gomder, 18, Boardmanville.

Widow Found Dead. Lexington, Ky., March 10. — The body of Mrs. William Martin, a widow, was found in the electric light plant's reservoir, and as a result of police investigation J. W. Bess, a prominent contractor, has been held to the coroner. Mrs. Martin recently told the police that Bess had secured $250 from her, and she asked the officer to get it for her. Bess was arrested. He said he had not seen Mrs. Martin since Wednesday. He said he had borrowed from her, but had paid her back all excepting $18. The body was examined by several physicians, who say there is no water in the lungs showing that the woman was dead when placed in the pond. She was 35 years old.

Jersey City, N. J., March 10.—The bartenders of this city are considering a proposition to form a temperance society. One of the leaders in the movement is quoted as saying: "I think the idea a good one. Why should not bartenders be total abstainers? The interests of their employers demand that they shall at all times be steady, sober and industrious. Why should a bartender be obliged to drink every time he is invited to do so by a customer? It is a pernicious custom. I believe two-thirds of the bartenders are ready to become total abstainers."

BY UNKNOWN PERSONS.

Sentries Stationed Around the Colorado Smelters Are Fired Upon.

Colorado Springs, Colo., March 10. —Sentries stationed around the three mills affected by the smelter men's strike were fired upon at midnight. There were physical encounters between workmen going to and coming from the mills, and employees were guarded from their homes to the mills by details of infantry. Deputy sheriffs were held up at the point of guns, and two narrow escapes from bullets fired at close range were reported, one a sentry, the other a deputy sheriff from Benton on guard at the Telluride mine. From reports made by the sentries and the flashes from the guns the men doing the shooting were located on the hills surrounding the plants. Most of the shooting was done at long range. No one was injured.

Will Meet Liabilities.

New York, March 10.—Judge Adams in the United States district court appointed as receivers of the firm of Dresser & Company, who assigned last Saturday, Robert C. Morris and Charles C. Mackenzie, with a bond of $100,000 each. The receivers were appointed on the application of William M. Dutch, who filed a petition in involuntary bankruptcy against the firm. Mr. Mackenzie said an inventory would be made, when the creditors could decide whether the concern should be wound up or the business continued. He added: "The books, I am informed, show that the firm has been making net profits of from $60,000 to $80,000 a year, and it has large protective profits in orders ahead. Mr. Dresser's private fortune is amply sufficient to meet all liabilities of the firm."

Gifts For Harvard.

Cambridge, Mass., March 10.—Two gifts have been announced for Harvard which are unique in the history of the university. The first gift is from Mrs. John Markoe of Philadelphia. It consists of $5,000 to found a scholarship in memory of her son, James Markoe, member of the class of '89, who lost his life recently trying to save the lives of others in a runaway accident. The second gift is from Miss Agathe Schurz and Miss Marianne Schurz of New York city, and consists of $3,000 to establish the Herbert Schurz memorial fund for the care of needy students at the Stillman infirmary.

Stripped a Monument.

New York, March 10.—The Brooklyn police are looking for vandals, who visited the Maryland statue in Prospect park and stripped it of much of its bronze. The monument was erected by the Sons of the Revolution of Maryland, to the memory of 400 brave men from that state, who, by laying down their lives at Battle Pass, saved the American army from defeat by the British. The lettering was of solid bronze, fastened to the granite base by iron pegs soldered into the stone. Some person or persons pried off 80 of the letters and carried them away.

Pennsy Increases Its Capital.

Philadelphia, March 10.—The stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad company in annual meeting voted to increase the capital stock of the company by $150,000,000, making the total authorized capital $400,000,000. Of the increased capital $100,000,000 will be issued in straight stock, and the directors are given the option of issuing the remaining $50,000,000 in convertible bonds. The increase will be ratified by a stock vote, as required by law. The stockholders also voted to lease for a period of 20 years the New York and Pennsylvania railroad.

Oregon In a Storm.

San Francisco, March 10.—Sailors recently on the battleship Oregon who have arrived here on the steamer Coptic report that the Oregon was in a terrific storm, while en route from Yokohama to Woosung. The boats were carried away, the large 7-ton steam launch was tossed out of its davits and against the turrets, and other damage done, though the ship herself sustained very little damage.

Rebellion Is Spreading.

London, March 10. — The correspondent at Shanghai telegraphs that the rebellion in the Kwang Si province is spreading. Several villages have been captured and authority of the government in that province is practically at an end. The popular hatred for the Christians, adds the correspondent, is displayed in Shan Tung province by the destruction of the churches.

Official Corruption Alleged.

Kansas City, March 10.—Charges of alleged official corruption in the police department, involving Chief John Hayes, Detective Charles P. Sander-Hayes and Officers McAnney and Sullivan, made by Jailer Robert Todhunter, were filed with the board of police commissioners. An investigation will follow.

LEVEES THREATENED.

Mighty Flood Passing Through the Mississippi to the Gulf.

LOWLANDS COMPLETELY INUNDATED.

Prediction Made That Within a Week the Highest Water Ever Experienced Will Be Rushing Through the Channels.

Memphis, March 10.—The river situation shows but little change. Refugees from the lowlands are arriving by every boat. The government's engineers here have officially stated that the situation is very serious, and predict that within a week the highest water ever experienced will be rushing through the levee channels. Reports from points in Mississippi say the lowlands are completely inundated, and in many cases stock is suffering.

The condition of the embankment 20 miles north of Memphis, where the water is flooding around the end of the levee in the 17-mile gap, where embankments have never been built, is serious. It is believed to be one of the most dangerous places along the river. It is reported that the water is slowly washing away the levee there. The engineers in charge put in temporary revetments, but the counties of Lee and Crittenden, in Arkansas, were already overflowed. The White river, in Arkansas, reached the danger line and is still rising. Backwater from the Mississippi reaches as far as Clarendon, Ark., and the rains of the last few days threaten a disastrous overflow.

Situation at New Orleans.

New Orleans, March 10.—The river here registered 18.3, a rise of only two-tenths of a foot in the past 24 hours. It is still 1.2 feet below the record of 1897. Most of the present flood is due to the water which has poured out of the Red, Arkansas and other lower streams, and the engineers are hopeful that considerable of this water will be carried off before the effect of the freshets in the Ohio, Tennessee and other upper rivers is felt here. The New Orleans levee board continues its employment of men to fill sacks with sand. Dirt is being hauled to the river front and weak places made secure. No news of additional breaks along the La Fourche have been received.

Beyond Flood's Reach.

Evansville, Ind., March 10. — The stage of water in the Ohio river has reached 42.4 and is still rising. Evansville, beyond the reach of the flood no matter how high it goes, with the possible exception of some of its suburbs, has taken every precaution to prepare for the highest water ever known here. Pigeon creek, which flows through the lower part of the city, was like a river, and so high that some of the mills located on its banks have been closed until the water subsides. Steamboats are now dropping their gang planks in Water street, something that has not been done in many years. The boats are still making their regular trips, but the runs are unsatisfactory.

Breaks Feared.

New Orleans, March 10.—The state engineers addressed a communication to the Maritime Exchange asking that masters of steam vessels be asked to run under slow bells. There have been threats to shoot into vessels which do not obey this request. Much damage is done levees at the present stage of the river by the swell from steamers running at high speed. It was announced that the New Orleans levee board during the continuance of high water would keep its offices open all night, and that forces of men would be maintained to meet emergencies. There is considerable apprehension that something will give way up the river if the predictions of the weather bureau are realized.

Train Service Paralyzed.

Lincoln, March 10.—Train service in Nebraska is paralyzed on account of floods. Bridges on all the main lines of the Burlington and Union Pacific have been washed out. The Rock Island bridge at South Bend was torn away and bore down upon the bridges at Louisville, destroying the middle spans, and the waters washed out the remainder. The lowlands on the Platte for miles from Schuyler to the mouth at Plattsmouth are under water. At various places the Union Pacific tracks are under water for a mile or two at a stretch.

Fatally Burned.

Webster City, Ia., March 10. — E. Murphy, an employee at Mercy hospital, crawled into the hospital furnace while intoxicated, and when dragged forth five minutes later was found to be fatally burned.

FAR REACHING

Is Judge Cochran's Decision Rendered Monday On the Validity of Land Patents.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 9th.—Judge Cochran, in the United States Court, delivered an exhaustive opinion upon a question of enormous importance to the landowners of Eastern Kentucky. In the case of Lockard against the Asher Lumber Company he holds that all patents issued after 1852 for more than 200 acres are void, except when issued in a few counties where such patents were authorized by special acts of the Legislature.

These are commonly known as "blanket patents," covering very large areas, the one in question being for 40,400 acres. As they have heretofore been held valid by the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, the importance and far-reaching effect of Judge Cochran's opinion are easily seen. If sustained by the higher Federal Courts, to which the case will probably be taken, it will remove one of the greatest hindrances to the development of Eastern Kentucky, where such patents have so materially affected the validity of nearly all land titles.

Judge Cochran's opinion is a complete and logical discussion of the Kentucky land statute of 1852, and is said by lawyers to evince rare ability and research. He holds that the question has not been heretofore so squarely decided by the Kentucky Court of Appeals as to constitute that decision the "settled law" of the State, and that being mere "dicta" he is not bound to follow it. He admits that the Kentucky courts have held that one man could obtain more than one patent for 200 acres each, but holds that more than 200 acres could not be embraced in a single patent.

FUGITIVE TAYLOR.

Given a Roast by His Law Partner at Indianapolis—Pocketed All the Profits.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 9.—R. N. Miller, defendant in a suit for dissolution of partnership by W. S. Taylor, a refugee from Kentucky, filed a cross-complaint to-day in which he alleges that the law firm was Miller, Moores & Taylor, the ex-Deputy Attorney-General (Moores) permitting the use of his name, but not sharing in the profits. The firm was legal adviser for the O. B. Wilson Manufacturing Company, receiving $5,000 in stock, which Taylor had assigned to himself. It was worth $2,000. He now owns a controlling interest in the company. Miller also alleges that Taylor collected $1,000 for which, with the stock, he failed to account. Miller says of Taylor:

"I thought he was all right when I entered into partnership with him, but when he had trouble with the street car conductor over a four-cent fare and was going to shoot, it settled him with me. I have learned to know him better since. Since he filed suit against me there have been three men in my office to get me to sue him for money."

Mr. Miller was asked if he now thought Taylor was connected with the assassination of Governor Goebel.

"I have nothing to say as to that. However, if it was a matter of money consideration I would unhesitatingly pronounce him guilty," said Mr. Miller.

CIGARETTE WRAPPERS.

Very Heavy Demand For This Kind of Tobacco—Fancy Prices Being Paid.

[Courier-Journal.]

"More money is being paid for a certain quality of white burley, which is grown in Kentucky, than any other tobacco," said Mr. Thomas B. Yuelle, Manager of the leaf department of the American Tobacco Company, who was at the Galt House. "It is used as wrappers for 'baccos cigarettes,' and the demand is much in excess of the supply. The leaves must be of a light color and as thin as paper. The best quality brings 25 cents a pound, and the farmers are beginning to realize that it pays much better than any other kind of tobacco."

"Kentucky is the only State in which the white burley with the thin leaves can be raised, and there is no danger of the bottom dropping out of the price. The demand is becoming great for the tobacco cigarette, and our company is having a difficult time getting the wrappers. The tobacco grown on new land is the best. While the 'filling' of the 'baccos cigarette' is the same as that used in the paper cigarette the fact that it has a tobacco wrapper is a great card with persons who are prejudiced against the old kind of cigarette."

Mr. Yuelle will be in Kentucky for some time looking after the company's interests.

ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Arguments Will Be Heard on Motion to Dissolve the Injunction.

AGREEMENT HAD IN WABASH CASE.

Court Decided to Give Each Side All the Time Necessary to Thoroughly Prepare For the Hearing.

St. Louis, March 10.—Judge Elmer B. Adams, in the United States district court, announced that he will on Tuesday, March 17, hear arguments on the motion to dissolve the temporary injunction granted one week ago, restraining officials of the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Firemen and Railroad Trainmen and members of the grievance committees from ordering a strike on the Wabash railroad.

Colonel Blodgett, on behalf of the Wabash, asked that the court set Tuesday, March 17, as the date on which to hear arguments on the motion for the dissolution of the injunction. This date having been agreed to by counsel for both sides in the controversy Judge Adams announced his acquiescence.

Judge Adams stated he wished to give each side all the time necessary to thoroughly prepare for the hearing and asked to have any exceptions or affidavits filed as early as possible before that date. Colonel Blodgett stated that counter affidavits and exceptions to the defendant's answer could be prepared by Saturday, but Attorney F. N. Judson, for the brotherhoods, asked that they be filed earlier in order to give the defense more time to consider and answer them. Judge Adams set 10 a. m., Saturday next, as the time before which these affidavits might be filed. This, he said, would give the defense ample time for their consideration.

In order to hasten the proceedings Judge Adams announced that he would, in the meantime, carefully peruse the answer filed Monday by the defense, so that no time would be taken up in court next Tuesday by its reading. This document contains nearly 20,000 words, and would consume almost the entire court day if read.

Streetcars, Pedestrians and Vehicles.

St. Louis, March 10.—In the United States court of appeals an opinion handed down by Judge Thayer concurred in by Judge Caldwell, defines the rights and privileges of pedestrians and vehicles upon street railway tracks and the duties of motormen in running their cars. Judge Thayer held that a motorman is under the same obligations to exercise ordinary care and prudence, so as to avoid collisions and injuring persons, and these persons are to exercise care not to get in the way of streetcars, so as to be run over or injured. He says pedestrians and vehicles have a right to cross the tracks of street railways at any point besides the regular crossings and to use the tracks for any distance for a matter of safety or convenience, where they do not unnecessarily interfere with or obstruct the passage of the cars.

Welcomed Archbishop Quigley.

Chicago, March 10.—Five hundred Catholic laymen left Chicago by special train for Laporte, where they met Archbishop Quigley and party. At Englewood and South Chicago a number of priests joined the party. The train consisted of eight coaches and upon its arrival Harry J. Powers, chairman of the reception committee, entered the archbishop's car and read him an address of welcome. The entire party took part in the exercises at Laporte, after which the start for Chicago was made.

Rockefeller's Offer.

New York, March 10.—An offer of $500,000 has been made by John D. Rockefeller in behalf of the Fifth Avenue Baptist church for the property of the Lotus club on Fifth avenue. The Lotus club has rejected the proposition, declaring that the property is worth $660,000, but since Mr. Rockefeller is known to be very desirous of securing the property, and will even pay more than his original offer, it is believed a deal will be arranged.

May Desert the Town.

Shawneetown, Ills., March 10.—People here are debating the feasibility of retiring from the city with their personal property and then opening the levee and allowing the river to flood the town, thus doing away with the great danger of disaster that now threatens the place, which is situated on low ground and protected by a large levee, which the people fear may break should the river rise much more. A few years ago the levee broke at Shawneetown and the place was inundated and scores of people drowned.

THE action of the recent Republican Congress in refusing to give to the new Secretary of Commerce and Labor the amounts asked for in his estimate of what it would cost to run his department, is simply indicative of what we may expect from that department when it engages in the pastime of "trust-busting." A writer has analyzed what the provisions for publicity in that new department amount to under the most favorable conditions, and now that the Republicans have refused to allow the new Secretary anything with which to run his department, it means that nothing will be done at all. Mr. Cortelyou asked for about a million and a quarter of dollars to run the department, and Congress gave him about $300,000. This means that they are going to bust the trusts and investigate trusts on the installment plan only. It means that they passed the law as a bluff, and they intend to do nothing and allow the law under which the new department operates to become a dead letter.

PERSONAL.

—Miss Leah Martin has returned from Cincinnati.

—Mr. Robert Hunter went to Millersburg Tuesday.

—Miss Orra Hunter, of Washington, was in the city Tuesday.

—Mrs. James H. Cummings has been visiting at Millersburg the past week.

—Mrs. Mary Wood is at home after a visit to her granddaughter in Indianapolis.

—Mr. Samuel S. Lancaster, of Maquoketa, Iowa, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. D. Davis.

—Mrs. L. V. Davis arrived home Tuesday afternoon after spending the last ten days in New York.

—Mr. A. Bona, of Lexington, is visiting his daughters, Mrs. James J. Fitzgerald and Mrs. James Dunn.

—Mrs. Emma Carnahan, of Butte, Mont., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Newton, of East Second street.

—Mrs. P. W. Wheeler entertained a number of her young friends at her home on Fourth street last evening. Euchre was indulged in and the time most pleasantly spent.

River News.

The Keystone State is due down this evening and Stanley to-night. Up to-night, the Bonanza.

The river is again rising at all points above and may reach a higher stage than it did a week or so ago.

The monster towboat Sprague is due down this evening or to-morrow, with a big tow of coal. A party of mechanical experts are making a part of the present on the Sprague. Included in the party is a correspondent of the Scientific American. The Sprague is receiving a good deal of attention. In addition to being the largest and most powerful towboat in the world there are a number of new features in connection with her machinery, and these are attracting the attention of mechanical engineers, who are always anxious to catch on to anything new.

High grade fertilizer for tobacco beds, at Joseph H. Dodson's, Wall street.

The new Red Men's tribe at Germantown will adopt twenty palefaces one evening this week.

The seventeen years' patent which had placed an absolute prohibition on most forms of electric storage batteries during that period expired March 5th. Manufacturers are now at liberty to bring on the market inventions along the same line, and it is expected that this freedom will, in the near future, redound to the vast improvement of electric automobiles. The patent has been owned by the Electric Storage Battery Company of Philadelphia, and has kept most electric concerns out of the field of storage battery manufacture.

The funeral of the late Milton Cooper, whose death was mentioned Tuesday, takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Powell, corner of Second and Poplar streets, services by Rev. Dr. Barbour, assisted by Rev. Dr. Evans. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery. Mr. Cooper's death occurred Monday night. He would have been eighty-eight years old next month. He was born on Jersey Ridge, but practically all his long life was spent in Maysville. He was a brother of Mrs. Powell, and of the late Captain Newton Cooper.

At Muncie, Ind., Mrs. May Heine filed suit to recover $1,000 from Geo. W. Runyan. Both are leading spiritualists. She claims that for several months Runyan has influenced her by means of their religion to lend him sums aggregating $1,000.

General James W. McMillan, aged seventy-seven, a member of the Board of Review of the Pension Bureau, and a veteran of both the Civil and Mexican wars, died Monday at Washington City. He was a neighbor of Abraham Lincoln for many years. McMillan was a native of Clark County, Ky.

Peter Finley Dunne, author of "Mr. Dooley," has just closed a contract with Harper & Brothers, the publishers, that makes him the highest salaried literary man in the country, and perhaps in the world. Mr. Dunne is to write exclusively for the one firm. His work is likely to include editorials for the Harper publications, as well as additions to the "Dooley" sketches and other efforts.

Fletcher Mann, of Paris, and E. G. B. Mann, of this city, sold two tracts of land last Monday near Carlisle. One tract brought $78 per acre, and was purchased by M. S. Taylor, of Fayette County. The other sold for $50 per acre to Wm. Bell, of Nicholas. The first contains sixty-eight acres and the other ninety-nine acres. They still have another tract of eighty-eight acres for sale.

Last week a collision occurred upon the C. and O. road near Russell, in which two men were killed. Frank Jasper, a trackwalker, was very much interested in the wreck and had a photograph taken of the scene. Monday, while he was standing at the spot, apparently with his mind upon the wreck of last week and in deep meditation, he was struck by a train and killed. The fascination of the spot must have been very engrossing, as ordinarily he was a very careful man and wide-awake to all that was going on about him.

The General Finance Committee of the Kentucky association having in hand the raising of funds for a "New Kentucky Home" exhibit at the World's Fair in St. Louis, will soon place on sale throughout the State a button—of beautiful design and color, coupled with unique inscriptions. They will be sold at $1 apiece. Seven harmonious colors are artistically worked into the design and the buttons are an inch and a quarter in diameter. Each button is inscribed "Kentucky Home—World's Fair—It's Part Mine," above which is a picture of the proposed building.

Black Patti Troubadours.

"A Blazing Sun-Burst of Mirth, Melody and Actions" is the complimentary term applied by a leading New York daily newspaper to this season's Black Patti Troubadour show. The Troubadours always give a good show, but it is stated that this season's is a world-beater. It captivated New York at the beginning of the present tour, and the verdict seems to be that New York's judgment on the Black Patti Troubadours is all right. "A Festival of Parisian Melody," and ten top-notch variety acts headed by Black Patti, the greatest singer of her race, and John Rucker, "The Alabama Blossom," "The Tyrolean Tenors" and a Weber and Feldman ebony-tinted chorus are features of the Troubadours' performance announced for the Washington Friday, March 13th, for one performance only. Sale of seats now on at Nelson's, Market street. Better secure your seats now as there is a demand for choice. Entire balcony reserved for colored people.

FABRICS FOR

SHIRT-WAIST SUITS

All indications point to the increased popularity of shirt-waist suits—if such a thing is possible. Manufacturers are doing their level best to encourage the demand by turning out fabrics for these comfortable, practical gowns, that are far and away prettier than ever before. And the smart effect isn't everything. The colors are made to stand tubing—any number of times.

For 10c. a yard gingham plain and fancy. Patterns could be no prettier if you paid 25c. a yard. Plenty of patterns to choose from too in every wanted color.

For 15c. yard. Oxfords in beautiful solid colors and fancies of dainty designs. At the same price a complete line of Madras Gingham.

At 25c. yard. Canvas Suiting. One of the new mercerized cottons for spring. Also a handsome assortment of linens, madras, oxfords and natte chevoits.

At 39c. yard. Linens of many weaves in white and colors.

At 40c. yard. A great many patterns of white damasse madras.

At 50c. yard. The prettiest colored striped combinations in Silk Gingham we have ever had. A few plain colors. Close to fifty different patterns.

A little early is better than a little late. These are rare good things to secure for immediate making.

D. HUNT & SON

ECONOMY

Is What the Times Demand!

Money saved is the easiest money made. You may wear cheap clothing and be respectable, but you can't eat impure and unwholesome food and be healthy for any length of time. So when it comes to buying supplies for your table it is economy to buy the best. My annual CUT PRICE sale for CASH is now on, and when I say cash price that is what it is.

I am now rounding up my twenty-third year in Maysville. During that entire time I have worked hard and incessantly to build a trade for first-class goods and to establish and hold a reputation for honorable and fair dealing. My success in business has proved to me that I have not worked in vain. My business has steadily increased from the beginning. I intend to continue in the same old way. For your very liberal support you have my most sincere thanks, and I most respectfully ask for a continuance of same. I want country people when in our city to visit my store and make it their headquarters. You are always welcome.

Remember, I run two delivery wagons, and it is always a pleasure to deliver goods.

If you can't come to the store call up TELEPHONE 82.

EAST LIMESTONE, March 10th.—Moving time has come round and many are enjoying the sensation of the change to a new place.

Young grass and wheat are coming out of the winter season in fine condition.

A lady in our neighborhood sold $90 worth of turkeys the past season.

The fire observed on Limestone about 11 or 12 o'clock Wednesday night of last week was the burning of the infected clothing of the Green family who were stricken with smallpox some weeks ago.

The school term at Bernard expires this week. A gray horse rambling on the L. and N. railroad the past week has made some narrow escapes from being killed by the trains.

Hayden Sellers has taken possession of the ark on Mt. Ararat, vacated the past week by Mr. Burr who moved to the farm of Mr. Geo. Cobb, the grocer, on the Plumville pike.

Tom Curtis has moved to the farm formerly owned by Mrs. Mary Dimmitt.

Charles Pollard, of near Orangeburg, has moved to the farm of Geo. Sedden.

Mrs. Mary Dimmitt will leave for Colorado soon, accompanied by her sons, Thomas and Ralph, in anticipation of the benefit of the latter's health.

A heavy landslide occurred on the railroad in Powers' cut Sunday, but was soon cleared away by the watchful employees.

G. W. Beighle delivered his crop of 10,995 pounds of tobacco the past week at 7 cts. to Mr. Stiles, the prompt and energetic buyer who has done much to encourage tobacco interests in this neighborhood, aside from those who disgust the farmers with promises to visit their barns on certain days, but most generally failing to show up.

The remains of Mrs. Eliza Wilson, whose death occurred recently, were interred in the old family burying-ground on the farm of Robert H. Williams, the farm being formerly owned by the Wilsons. The driver of the funeral procession took the wrong road and went quite a distance out of the way which caused a delay of some time, arriving at the ground late, being near sundown when the burial took place. The husband of the deceased, who is quite feeble and has lived several years beyond the allotted period of life, was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fansler, of Maysville, who will tenderly care for him during his remaining years.

THE LATE J. D. RILEY.

Resolutions of Respect Adopted by the Board of Directors of the First National Bank.

Whereas, At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the First National Bank of Maysville, Ky., held Feb. 7th, 1903, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions as to the death of Mr. Jacob D. Riley, late President of said bank, and to report them at the next meeting of the directory, for approval, and to be spread on the minutes of the meeting, and have published in the Maysville BULLETIN, and a copy sent to the family. At the meeting of the Board held March 7th, 1903, the following resolutions were approved:

Resolved, That in our official, as well as individual capacity, we heard with sincere regret and profound sorrow of the death of our esteemed friend and associate, Mr. Jacob D. Riley, and we take great pleasure in testifying to his honest and upright course as the President of the bank for so many years, and to his uniformly courteous conduct towards all its patrons.

Resolved, That as an official, he was cautious and conservative; as a friend, genial and companionable; as a citizen, without reproach, and in the home circle, loved by all who were near and dear to him.

Resolved, That our tenderest sympathy goes out to his sorrowing family in this the hour of deepest grief, and we commend his widow and orphan to the divine care of Him who doeth all things well.
